back to work tomorrow, so I'm going to start tracking my time and leave early tonight to make sure I get more hours into the system tonight. I'll be putting in around 12 hours on my projects this weekend. I'm going to take a break tonight from these projects and spend some time wrapping up my last project of the day (I have 2 more to go), and start making some dinner. I had dinner at the museum earlier in the week. It was a roast turkey, mashed potatoes, green beans, and stuffing. I'll be going to McDonald's this week and will have some leftovers to put in a sandwich on Thursday. I'll just have left over from that and the turkey I made earlier. This week I'm going to be trying to get back to my calorie counting. I usually try to eat pretty conservatively, but I've been gaining weight lately. This weekend I'll try to get back on track, but I'm going to make a point of trying to eat more healthy this week. 79a2804d6b
